

The reality

Only 1 in 5 executives believe that HR is adequately prepared for the business disruption ahead and the fact that the majority of the population is still illiterate. The National Commission on the Environment and Public Resources (1990) has estimated that only 10% of the population has been exposed to formal education. The Commission also found that the majority of the population is illiterate and that the majority of the population is poor. The Commission also found that the majority of the population is poor and that the majority of the population is poor.
